Introduction

ICT in the 21st Century is seen as an essential resource to support learning and teaching, as well as playing an important role in the everyday lives of children, young people and adults. Consequently, schools need to build in the use of these technologies in order to arm our children with the skills to access life-long learning and employment.

Information and Communications Technology (ICT) covers a wide range of resources including; web-based and mobile learning. It is also important to recognise the constant and fast paced evolution of ICT within our society as a whole. Currently the internet technologies children and young people are using both inside and outside of the classroom include:

- Websites
- Learning Platforms and Virtual Learning Environments
- Email and Instant Messaging
- Chat Rooms and Social Networking
- Blogs and Wikis
- Podcasting
- Video Broadcasting
- Music Downloading
- Gaming
- Mobile/Smart phones with text, video and/or web functionality
- Other mobile devices with web functionality including Nintendo DS's, iPads, Tablets and other wireless message devices

Whilst exciting and beneficial both in and out of the context of education, much ICT, particularly web-based resources, are not consistently policed. All users need to be aware of the range of risks associated with the use of these Internet technologies.

At Brockley Primary School we understand the responsibility to educate our pupils in E-safety issues; teaching them the appropriate behaviour and critical thinking to enable them to remain both safe and legal when using the internet and related technologies, in and beyond the context of the classroom.

This policy is inclusive of both fixed and mobile internet; technologies provided by the school; (such as PCs, laptops, webcams, whiteboards, digital video equipment, Chromebook, iPads etc.); and technologies owned by pupils and staff, but brought onto school premises (such as laptops, mobiles phones, camera phones and portable media players, Nintendo DS's and other wireless message devices etc.).

Roles and Responsibilities

As E-Safety is an important aspect of strategic leadership within the school, the Headteacher and governors have ultimate responsibility to ensure that the policy and practices are embedded and monitored. The named E-Safety co-coordinators in our school are the Headteacher and the senior teachers for both KS1 and KS2. All members of the school community have been made aware of who holds this post. It is the role of the E-Safety coordinators to keep abreast of current issues and guidance through organisations such as Derbyshire LA, CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection) and Childnet.

The E-Safety coordinators update staff and governors on all ICT issues. These groups should also have an understanding of the issues at our school in relation to local and national guidelines and advice.

Writing the E-Safety policy

This policy, supported by the school's Acceptable Use Agreement for staff, governors, visitors and pupils, is to protect the interests and safety of the whole school community. Our E-Safety policy has been written by the school, in conjunction with advice from Derbyshire County Council, government guidance. It has been agreed by the Staff and approved by the Governing Body

E-Safety skills development for staff

- Our staff receive regular information and training on E-Safety issues through the coordinator at staff meetings.
- All staff have been made aware of individual responsibilities relating to the safeguarding of children within the context of E-Safety and know what to do in the event of misuse of technology by any member of the school community.
- New staff receive information on the school's Acceptable Use Agreement as part of their induction.
- All staff are encouraged to incorporate E-Safety activities and awareness within their lessons.
- All school staff will need to attend regular training, this is the responsibility of the ICT Co-ordinators

E-Safety information for parents/carers

- Parents/carers are asked to read through and sign the attached Acceptable Use Agreement for pupils on behalf of their child.
- Parents/carers are required to make a decision as to whether they consent to images of their child being taken/used on the school website or school publications e.g. Newsletter. This is done as each child joins the school and as part of the annual pupil update process, the information is retained for future reference.
- The school website contains useful information and links to sites such as Childline, CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre) and the CBBC Web Stay safe page.
- The school will send out relevant E-Safety information through newsletters and the school website.

Community use of the Internet

- External organisations that may use the school's ICT facilities must adhere to the E-Safety policy.

Teaching and Learning

Internet use will enhance learning

- The school will provide opportunities within a range of curriculum areas to teach E-Safety, this is adopted from the CEOP learning materials.
- Educating pupils on the dangers of technologies that may be encountered outside school is done informally when opportunities arise and as part of the E-Safety curriculum.
- Pupils are aware of the impact of online bullying and know how to seek help if these issues affect them. Pupils are also aware of where to seek advice or help if they experience problems when using the Internet and related technologies; i.e. parent/carer, teacher/trusted member of staff, or an organisation such as Childline/CEOP.
- The school Internet access will be designed expressly for pupil use and will include filtering appropriate to the age of pupils.

- Pupils will be taught what Internet use is acceptable and what is not and given clear objectives for Internet use.

Neither the school nor DCC can accept liability for the material accessed, or any consequences of Internet access. The school will audit IT provision to establish if the E-Safety policy is adequate and that its implementation is effective.
